

JOB TITLE: Site Director, Atlanta, GA

ORGANIZATION BACKGROUND:

The Hidden Genius Project is a non-profit headquartered in Oakland, California that trains and mentors Black male youth in technology creation, entrepreneurship, and leadership skills to transform their lives and communities. The Hidden Genius Project seeks to reveal the true potential of Black male youth and transform their communities from the inside out. Through our student-centered, project-based approach, we invest in young Black men, give them access to technology training, and plug them into an ecosystem of innovation and empowerment. The Hidden Genius Project was founded in 2012 and established a full-time infrastructure in 2015. The organization now operates Intensive Immersion Programs in Oakland, Richmond, California, Los Angeles, and Detroit; in 2023, we will continue on our national growth trajectory, all as we look to regain our programming rhythm in the wake of ongoing public health challenges. As the program continues to grow, The Hidden Genius Project seeks to impact thousands of more Black males and young people in the coming years. Accordingly, the organization now has the opportunity to establish programming in Atlanta, GA.

POSITION PURPOSE AND SUMMARY:

Building on a decade of success in California, the Atlanta Site Director within The Hidden Genius Project is the fundamental driver of the organization's launch within the greater Atlanta community. This person is responsible for holding The Hidden Genius Project's culture and values while managing a team that delivers dynamic and effective programming to local young people. The Site Director continually exercises ingenuity, enthusiasm, and a deep commitment to continual learning within an exciting startup environment. Finally, the Site Director works as part of a dynamic, communicative, and supportive team of staff, volunteers, and Board members committed to their success. This is the consummate role for an individual with a creative and entrepreneurial spirit.

MAJOR AREAS OF RESPONSIBILITY:

- Organizational Leadership—Maintain effective organizational culture consistent with the values of The Hidden Genius Project
- Mentorship and positive student experience—Develop rich one-to-one connections with Immersion participants. Through mentorship relationships, identify holistic participant needs as they arise, and strategize with The Hidden Genius Project staff to develop a plan to address them. Solicit participant and parent/guardian feedback to guide responsive programmatic improvements to maximize participant enjoyment and success.
- Relationship development with key stakeholders and partners—Coordinate responsive communication with participants, their families, and key partners. Identify pressing constituent needs and develop strategic responses. Develop strategic partnerships to support healthy operation, program implementation, and fundraising.
- Office and programming operations coordination—Ensure programming spaces are set up properly. Coordinate and set up student meals. Oversee arrangements for student travel to field trips and other activities.

- Oversight and management of site budget—In partnership with Finance and Operations Director, develop, manage, and responsibly implement the annual site budget. Practice sound judgment in allocating adequate resources for effective operation and program delivery, while also identifying opportunities for cost savings. Ensure that the organization meets annual expenditure and revenue targets.
- Fund development—Submit philanthropic grant proposals to support the site and organization writ large. Cultivate partnerships with local and nationally-based businesses to garner financial and in-kind support. Attract local individual donors to contribute to annual and growth campaigns.
- Team management and development—Manage site team members, Support and facilitate local hiring processes. Curate and coordinate team training and professional development opportunities.
- Volunteer coordination—Track, organize, and communicate with volunteers, as needed, to support Immersion and Catalyst programs.
- Data Collection and Reporting—Partner with The Hidden Genius Project leadership to implement core data collection processes to support organizational learning and quality assurance.
- Training, technical assistance, and facilitation—Train The Hidden Genius Project staff and volunteers on relevant content, competencies and/or methods.
- Engagement of local advisors—Identify respected and trusted partners to offer advocacy, guidance, and key relationships to support effective operation of the site. As appropriate, establish a local Advisory Council to champion The Hidden Genius Project’s mission.
- Core Communications—Produce and distribute locally-focused core communications content and materials, including electronic newsletters, social media content, press releases, brochures, and any other necessary materials (to go along with centrally-developed content).
- Other duties as assigned by the Executive Director—Work on other short-term and long-term projects as the need arises.

GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Serve as an exceptional role model and mentor to The Hidden Genius Project participants.
- Communicate effectively (via email, phone, and/or postal mail) and in a timely manner with all relevant constituencies, including participants and their parents/guardians.
- Act as dynamic ambassador to The Hidden Genius Project within the community

ABOUT THE HIDDEN GENIUS PROJECT CREATION & COMMITMENT:

The Hidden Genius Project trains and mentors Black male youth in technology creation, entrepreneurship, and leadership skills to transform their lives and communities. Founded in 2012 by five Black male entrepreneurs/technologists who were unnerved by the dramatic juxtaposition between the high unemployment of Black male youth and the plethora of career opportunities within the local technology sector, The Hidden Genius Project connects young Black males with the skills, mentors, and experiences that they need to become leaders in high-performing entrepreneurs and technologists.

The Hidden Genius Project is an equal opportunity and affirmative action employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, religion, color, national origin, sex (including pregnancy, childbirth, reproductive health decisions, or related medical conditions), sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, age, status as a protected veteran, status as an individual with a disability, genetic information, political views or activity, or other applicable legally protected characteristics. We also consider qualified applicants regardless of criminal histories, consistent with legal requirements. If you have a disability or a need that requires an accommodation, please let us know.

We value diversity and inclusion and encourage people of color to apply for our open positions. To be successful in our work, one must have a passion for young Black males and through operational excellence, be able to serve them in their current state and for the betterment of their future.
